Bound by clocks are we. The times of each of our lives will never cease until we do. And when we cease, as we all well know, we shall make a full account of how we spent the scanty hours of our lives. Yesterday was the hour of our childhood. Today is the hour of college, our entrance ramp into maturity.

Tomorrow... well, who can tell what that hour shall bring? We are but traveling around the face of a clock, growing dizzy with all the busy, and life is but a few short hours long. And what is accomplished besides the ticking away of a few more seconds of life? That is for you to decide. I hope that you have decided well, and that this year past has been one of good decisions and well-spent minutes. Remember the words of Ecclesiastes 3:1-8: "There is a time for everything, a season for every activity under heaven. A time to be born and a time to die.... A time to kill and a time to heal.... A time to cry and a time to laugh. A time to grieve and a time to dance.... A time to embrace and a time to turn away.... A time to be quiet and a time to speak up.... A time for war and a time for peace" (NLT). So do pursue those grades, do pursue those friends, do pursue that degree, do pursue your family, do pursue that career, but do not neglect the pursuit of your Maker. To spend time learning of His quality, witnessing His integrity, picturing His countenance, marveling at His wisdom, memorizing His words, is time that could not possibly be spent better. For soon enough, our time-bound efforts to seek Him shall be replaced with sight and sound and touch in real-time, in a place where neither past nor future exist. English dramatist and novelist W. Somerset Maugham (1874-1965) spoke thusly: "I don't think of the past. The only thing that matters is the everlasting present." And so shall it be with us, dear friends, in heaven, at the true culmination of the times of our lives. Our past will be over, our future irrelevant. There will be only the everlasting present of real-time, heaven-time. It is written, "In that day he will remove the cloud of gloom, the shadow of death that hangs over the earth. He will swallow up death forever! The Sovereign Lord will wipe away all tears. He will remove forever all insults and mockery against his land and people. The Lord has spoken!" (Is. 25:7-8 NLT). So, dear friends spend the currency of every earthly hour to purchase more depth in your bond with the Triune God, Whose life does not answer to any clock.

Time of Our Lives

Dear 2007 graduates.

Where did the time go? It seems like it was just yesterday that you arrived to study here at CIU, and now you have graduated! Time really does fly... That fact brings to mind the heartfelt cry of Moses when he prayed: "Teach us to number our days aright..." (Psalm 90:12). Not only do the years of post-high school studies go by fast, but an entire life time does too! How important it is, therefore, for the "time of our lives" to be spent in being and doing that which will count most for eternity and God's glory.

Our CIU Year Verse for the 2006-07 school year has been: "Rejoice in the Lord always..." (Philippians 4:4). Don't forget that true joy is not a subjective emotion, but an objective reality that is the result of a life lived 100% for Jesus Christ. As you leave CIU and go out to minister in the marketplace, or in full-time domestic Christian ministry, or on the mission field, my prayer is that "the time of your life" will be filled with Christ, and filled with joy, every moment of every day.

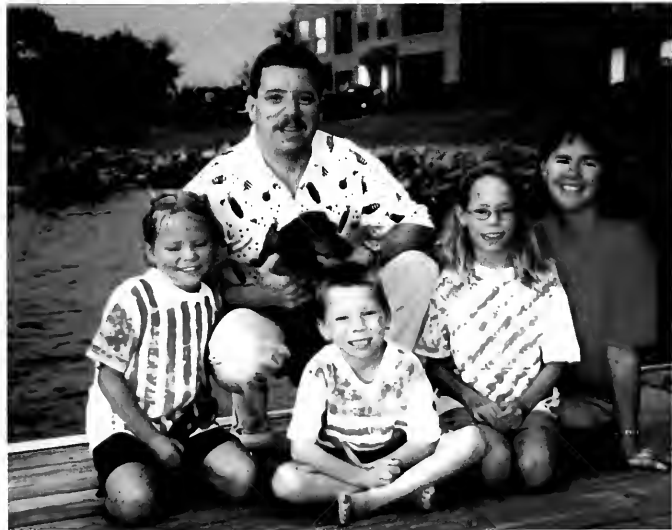

We love you, and will be praying for you.

Dr. George Murray
President

RICK SWIFT

Rick Swift is a man of many talents and roles. Beyond the role we know him in here at CIU, he is a loving father and husband, a skilled soccer player, and a classic Disney movie aficionado. Born in Coral Gables, FL on December 10, 1962, Rick spent most of his early years as a nomad of sorts. In fact, he spent most of his elementary years in England and he attended eight different schools in Texas, Virginia, and Georgia. While in England he learned to play the real version of football and even has experience coaching his kids soccer teams. He was married to Patty on July 18, 1987 and raising three kids has exposed him to many Disney movies. He may or may not admit it but he truly enjoys most of them; just ask him about his favorite, The Jungle Book, and he may break out in song since, according to his wife, he has them all memorized. Beyond all of this he is a true man of God who loves studying the book of Acts and the passage found in Romans chapters five through eight. He has worked at CIU since 1991 where he has served as Dean of Men, Assistant Dean of Students and currently is the Dean of Students. We thank him for his many years of dedicated service to the student body and look forward to the years to come.

Wow! What can I say! This year has been a blast. Everyone that worked on the yearbook this year worked extremely hard, and brought their own talents to the book. I thank you guys so much! Kim: we have had alot of fun together. You have been a big help to me, you bring out the creative side in me and I appreciate that about you. Stacey and Joy: I don't know what I would have done without you guys. You have been my lifesavers. Whenever I needed pictures, you were there willing and offering to get them for me. Your pictures are amazing!! Caitlin and Ashley: Thanks for the pictures you guys took, they were great!! Lauren: The layouts you did were amazing! I'm glad you were able to bring your creativity to the book as well! Ben and DJ: Thanks for writing the Dedicatee page and the Opening! You guys have talent that I don't possess, and you made the book so much better! Nathan: Wow! You were always there to help out whenever we needed you. You were our Photoshop guy, and the only guy on a staff of girls! We also really appreciate all the encouragement and candy you threw at us! Dr. Dan: Thanks for your encouragement, your ideas, your trust in me to make this book all I hoped it would be, I love you dad!

Colophon

The 68th edition of the Finial was published in Winston-Salem, NC by Jostens Printing & Publishing Company. The press run was 700 copies. The book was printed on 80 pound high gloss paper and the endsheets are 100 pound paper. The copy font was Maximo. The Finial was produced using a Window's based computer and printed in HP Laser Jet 2200DTN. The pictures were digital and the pages were submitted on CD and sent to the plant. The OS was Windows XP and the application used to design each page was Adobe InDesignCS integrated with Jostens Software. The yearbook advisor is Dr. Dan DeLozier, chairman of The Communication Program. The editor is Ashley DeLozier. The Jostens representative is Steve Vollenweider and the Jostens plant representative is Sandy Moses. Yay for Cheryl at the rental car company, Dr. Pepper and chocolate, and not too many late nights, except for this one. It was fun. Have the time of your life!
